

Daniel Kummer Memorial Scholarship 2017 Scholarship Application

INTRODUCTION

Daniel Kummer Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of Daniel Kummer. Daniel had a passion for videography. He strived to provide the community with quality videos to help educate and inform on a wide range of topics. He worked at Marshfield Community TV as the coordinator for many years. He was the driving force behind the move to the Community Plaza II building where they were able to house offices and a TV studio. He also served on the Wisconsin Community Media board and won many awards through that organization especially for his work videotaping the Marshfield Tiger Football team.

It is the purpose of this fund to provide high school graduates who intend to major in a videography or broadcasting an opportunity to receive scholarship assistance.

Criteria for the Daniel Kummer Memorial Scholarship are as follows:
